Numb. 2361

MONDAY, JANUARY 17. 1743.

Since our laſt arrived a Mail from Flanders.

Lisbon, Dec. 11.

HIS Majeſty is ſo well recover'd, that on the 7th he aſſiſted at the Firſt Veſpers of the Immaculate Conception, at the Patriarchal Church. His Majeſty's Miniſter at the Court of France, Don Louis d'Acunha, has ſent his Majeſty by an Expreſs certain Medicines and Specificks againſt the Malady h which he has been lately attacked. Amongſt ſe there was an Ointment proper for preſerving the e of the Head moſt affected. The Phyſicians, how-, were unwilling the King ſhould make uſe of it, ſome Trial ſhould be made of its Effects. It has ac-dingly been uſed on two Tradeſmen in this City in a Condition, with all imaginable Succeſs; and there-we doubt not but his Majeſty will ſpeedily be the er for it. On Saturday there arrived in this Port a ence Ship from Bahia, the Captain of which, his w, and Paſſengers, all went Yeſterday in Proceſſion, o-looted, to the Church of our Lady of Happy Death, accompliſh a Vow they made in a moſt grievous mpeſt they met with in their Paſſage.

Montmeillan, Dec. 28. We were informed on the 18th ant at Midnight, by an Eſtafette from Marquis d'Or-, to the Engliſh and Hungarian Miniſters, of the g of Sardinia's having received moſt certain Advices, the next Morning, being his Catholick Majeſty's h-day, the Marquis de la Mina intended to advance h the Army under his Command, in order to attack in ſome one of our Poſts. Theſe Advices proved too true, and the Face of our Affairs in theſe Parts w very unfortunately altered. On the 19th, in the rning, our Army was early under Arms, and in or-ot Battle, expecting every Hour, and with the ut-t Eagerneſs and Impatience, to ſee the Spaniards ap-ch, which, it was thought, they could not poſſibly without paſſing through the high Road that leads n the Barreux to Chamberry: But as the Spaniſh Ge-l had ſeen that this would be attended with ſuch iculties as were almoſt inſuperable, and might ex-e his whole Army to periſh, he laid his Scheme dif-ently, and indeed in ſuch a Manner, and with ſo much , as ſhews him to be an able and experienced Officer. our three eſſential Poſts, the Caſtle of the Marches, Lady of Mians, and the Caſtle of Apremont, the two mer could not be approached without their being covered from afar off, and his Troops being expoſed the fire of our Artillery, and taken in Flank by our usket Shot when they drew nearer, therefore he left main Body of his Army in his Camp, and only or-ed a Detatchment of 4000 Men, with his Miquelets, advance by a Road in the Mountains of Dauphine, ere they could not be perceived, and marched on nch Ground till they came almoſt upon the Moun-that commands the Caſtle of Apremont, and with-a ſmall Cannon Shot of it; there they began their At-k two Hours before Noon, and made a continual and rible Fire of Musket-ſhot and ſmall Cannon, for near ty-four Hours. The little Gariſon within made a very ve and vigorous Reſiſtance, and would not ſurrender the Walls were tumbling about their Ears, and they the Petard was fixed to the Gate, with two ſmall teries in the Flanks. The King of Sardinia on his e, and by the Mountains behind Chamberry, ſent a tachment to drive the Spaniards, if poſſible, from their , and reſcue the Caſtle. Theſe Detachments, at firſt, Wonders, and could they have been ſupported and ieved by freſh Men now and then, might have ceeded. The greateſt Misfortune of our Situation me from the Impoſſibility of knowing the Motions our Enemies till it was too late to prevent them, their being covered in the Mountains of France. long as this was the Caſe, and the Main of Spaniſh Army continued at Barreux, the King Sardinia could not divide his Forces, and ſend large tachments to Apremont, as they muſt have gone reat Way about; and before he could have recalled em, the Body of his Army might have been attacked M. la Mina, who lay in wait to take that Advantage. ing this State of Uncertainty, which laſted three ys, the King of Sardinia's Troops continued under rms, and paſſed three whole Nights without their ents. As ſoon as the Caſtle of Apremont was ſurren-d, the whole Spaniſh Army marched thither; which hen we were apprized of, our Camp was likewiſe re-oved nearer to our Lady of Mians, in hopes the Spaniards would have come down into the Plain, with a View of advancing towards Chamberry, and thereby have given us an Opportunity of attacking them, which it is impoſſible to do, where they now are poſted; but they have not hitherto attempted it, and, in the mean while, our Troops ſuffer beyond Expreſſion, and thin every Day by the Numbers that fall ſick. The neceſſary Subſiſtances, particularly for our Cavalry and our Equipages, begin to fail, and we muſt ſoon, if we continue in this Situation, be reduced to nothing, while, on the other hand, we are informed the Spaniards expect, about the beginning of next Month, a Reinforcement of 4000 Men, in ſix Battalions of Foot, and two Regiments of Dragoons, which muſt give them a very great Superiority. The Diſorders and Exceſſes that have been committed by the Miquelets, &c. are not to be expreſſed; for theſe eight Days paſt, we have heard of nothing elſe but Sacrilege, burning of Houſes and Churches, robbing of the conſecrated Vaſes, Rapes, Aſſaſſination in cold Blood, flaying Women and Children alive, and the like Barbarities, which have cauſed a general Deſolation in ſeveral of the Villages and Cottages about Chamberry. We are now in hourly Expectation of their taking Poſſeſſion of that City, which will haſten our Retreat into Piemont, it being impoſſible for the Army to remain any longer encamped in this ſevere Climate, and in this rigorous Seaſon, when our Communication with the Capital is cut off. We have this Minute received Advice from the Camp, that the Army has received the Orders for commencing immediately its March towards Piemont, and it is known that this Reſolution, as well as every other that has been taken in the preſent Change of our Affairs, has been previouſly concerted and ſettled by his Sardinian Majeſty with M. Villettes and Count Kaunitz, the Britiſh and Hungarian Miniſters reſiding here.

Prague, Jan. 5. Prince Lobkowitz, at the Deſire of the principal Inhabitants of this City, has written to her Majeſty, to appoint Commiſſioners to enquire into the Conduct of the Jews, who are ſaid to be as much in the French Intereſt as their Brother Infidels the Turks, and to have cauſed moſt of the Severities practiſed on the Townſmen by their inſidious Informations. On the other hand, the Jews have named three of their principal Rabbies to go to Vienna, and ſtate their Caſe fairly; ſince, according to their Account of the Matter, tho' they did not make ſuch open Profeſſions of Loyalty to the Queen of Hungary, they did more for her Service than the reſt of the Citizens; having twice attempted (once during the Siege, and once afterwards) to put the Place into Prince Lobkowitz's Hands. We are preparing to march a great Army into the Upper Palatinate and Bavaria. Our Infantry are recruited to 13000 Men, and we have upwards of 11,000 Horſe, Dragoons, and Huſſars. It is impoſſible to expreſs how much the French are the Execration of the Bohemians.

Vienna, Jan. 2. By our Letters from Bavaria, and the Upper Palatinate, we are aſſured, that the Mortality is ſtill ſo great amongſt the French Troops, that they bury from two to three hundred in a Day. From Bohemia we are poſitively informed, that the Number of thoſe who arrived with Marſhal Belliſle at Egra, did not amount to 6000. Prince Lobkowitz has actually 2300 Priſoners taken on the Road: The whole Number loſt in that March was not leſs than 4000, and 2500 remain Priſoners of War at Prague.

Vienna, Jan. 5. Diſpoſitions are making for the March of the Army out of Bohemia into the Upper Palatinate, and the Troops under Count Khevenhuller, which were at Winterberg and Clattau, are conſigned by that General to Prince Lobkowitz; ſo that the Queen will, in a few Days, have two Armies upon the Bavarian Territories. Seckendorf is ſtill at Braunau, the Prince of Conti at Engelfelden, Broglio at Dingleſing, another Principal Officer at Landau, and the Count de Saxe at Deckendorf.

Frankfort, Jan. 17. The Councils of our Court are exceedingly embarraſs'd at preſent. If the French Army in Bavaria be recruited to 60,000 Men, that Electorate will be utterly ruined, the War in Germany protracted, and moſt of the States will infallibly declare for the Queen of Hungary. On the other hand, ſhould the French retire, it is a Thing admits of no doubt, that the Auſtrians will become Maſters of it again. His Pruſſian Majeſty offers to ſecure the Emperor from this, in caſe they who began this fatal War, retire into their Country, by declaring he will not ſee Bavaria conquer'd; but then we are well informed, that Prince intends to join the Allies in executing their other Deſigns, and we know not how to depend on him. The new Elector Palatine is very deſirous of living in cloſe Correſpondence with Pruſſia, and to ſecure his Dominions, by getting an End put to the War in Germany at any rate. If this new Syſtem prevails, his Imperial Majeſty may live quietly at Munich, but then the Queen of Hungary and her Allies will be at full Liberty to execute their Deſigns againſt the French, and of deſtroying all Poſſibility of their interfering again in the Empire; which is ſaid to be the Aim of all the late Negociations among certain Courts. We have unqueſtionable Advice, that the French Army, which it has abſolutely evacuated Bohemia, will not exceed 11,000 Men, and thoſe in a moſt wretched Condition. Prince Lobkowitz uſes all poſſible Means to engage the Bohemians to take up Arms, and we are apprehenſive in the Spring of ſeeing his Forces as numerous as thoſe of Count Khevenhuller. There is a Report, that ſome Terms of Accommodation have been propoſed here from the Court of Vienna, which are not diſliked.

An Infallible CURE
For Barrenneſs in Women, and Impotency in Men,
By Superlative ENLIVENING DROPS;
Which in a few Days render both Sexes Prolifick in a moſt wonderful Manner.

HUndreds of Ladies who were deem'd incurably Barren, and very many who thought themſelves too old to bear Children, have immediately conceived after taking three or four Doſes of them only; and vaſt Numbers of GENTLEMEN by taking them, have preſently become capable of propagating their Species, who before, thro' either Imbecility or Age, imagin'd it impoſſible.

They almoſt inſtantly renovate the vital Ferment of the Blood and Juices, rectify the languid State of all the Fluids, rouze, fortify, and increaſe the Spirits, invigorate the Nerves, reſtore juvenile Warmth, and cauſe a ſparkling Gladneſs and ardent Courage to flow in the Heart, and expand itſelf thro' the whole human Syſtem, ſo as ſenſibly to enliven and invigorate all the animal Faculties, and corroborate or ſtrengthen the whole Body, as well as the Part appropriated to Generation, and do infallibly cure Barrenneſs in one Sex, and Impotency in the other, from what Cauſe ſoever proceeding, as Thouſands have experienced.

They are alſo pleaſant to take, are Cordial to the Stomach, create an Appetite, and procure a good Digeſtion, beyond any thing known in the World. And are to be had only at Mr. RADFORD's Toy-ſhop, at the Roſe and Crown againſt St. Clement's Church-Yard, in the Strand, Price 5 s. the Bottle, with Directions.
